Carolyn K Armineh NOTD

POSTED BY LIPGLOSSIPING ON MAY - 14 - 2013

If you're a fan of classic shades, Carolyn K's Armineh is about as classic as it gets. This beige-toned nude should work well on most skin-tones as it leans neither too cool nor too warm in tone. I often find that nude shades (unless pink-toned) can pull orange against my colouring so a true neutral is most welcome.

Application was smooth but this one did unfortunately need a full three coats before it even considered becoming opaque on the nails. The formula has been infused with Pro Vitamin B5 for stronger, healthier nails and employs a flat brush for an easy (and speedy) application.

Carolyn K's Armineh is part of a three-piece set, available online from www.powderrooms.com, priced at £12.99
